

Massachusetts Institute of Technology Chapter
Editor Application

An editor plays an active role in the production of The Triple Helix. Editors are responsible for the selection and refinement of the articles that are published in the journal. Applicants should have strong writing skills and be interested in the issues discussed by The Triple Helix.

Completed applications must be submitted to alipkin@mit.edu by October 15, 2005. Please include a current resume if one is available and a writing sample.

---

Name:

E-Mail:

Phone:

Year:

Major:

Why are you interested in the editor position for The Triple Helix?

Describe any prior experience (activities, research, courses, etc) that you have that would help you succeed as an editor.

What issues in the realm of science, society and law intrigue you most?

What other commitments do you currently have? How much time would you be able to dedicate to work with The Triple Helix?