

Massachusetts Institute of Technology Chapter
Finance Associate Application

The role of a finance associate is to assist in the acquisition and management of funds for the MIT chapter of The Triple Helix. This role includes writing grant proposals, finding new sources of funding and planning and attending fundraisers.

Completed applications must be submitted to alipkin@mit.edu by October 15, 2005. Please include a current resume if one is available.

Name:

E-Mail:

Phone:

Year:

Major:

Why are you interested in the finance associate position for The Triple Helix?

Describe any prior experience (activities, research, courses, etc) that you have that would help you succeed as a finance associate.

What issues in the realm of science, society and law intrigue you most?

What other commitments do you currently have? How much time would you be able to dedicate to work with The Triple Helix?