

Massachusetts Institute of Technology Chapter
Marketing Associate Application

The role of a marketing associate is to promote the presence of The Triple Helix on the MIT campus. Responsibilities include, but are not limited to membership recruitment, distribution of the journal and publicity.

Completed applications must be submitted to alipkin@mit.edu by October 15, 2005. Please include a current resume if one is available and a writing sample.

Name:

E-Mail:

Phone:

Year:

Major:

Why are you interested in the marketing associate position for The Triple Helix?

Describe any prior experience (activities, research, courses, etc) that you have that would help you succeed as a marketing associate.

What issues in the realm of science, society and law intrigue you most?

What other commitments do you currently have? How much time would you be able to dedicate to work with The Triple Helix?