The McGovern Institute's stated goal is to investigate and ultimately understand the biological basis of the higher functions of the human brain. Achieving this goal will require the interactions of scientists and engineers from many disciplines. The initial groups of Investigators appointed in the McGovern reflect partially this multi disciplinary character. Many recent advances will accelerate progress in Neuroscience, particularly in imaging techniques and genomics.

For questions please contact:

Paige Hopewell
(paige@mit.edu)
Vice President for Publicity
BMES, MIT Chapter

David Yin
(dyin@mit.edu)
Vice President for Special Programs,
BMES, MIT Chapter

Phillip Mahdjoob-Alexander
(phillip1@mit.edu)
President,
BMES, MIT Chapter