Article I: Purpose

The MIT Korean International Student Association is a non-political club to foster friendship and support among Korean international students and furthermore, between Korean students and the greater MIT community. For this purpose, it hosts networking, social, and cultural events throughout the year. Its specific goals are stated below.

The goals of the MIT Korean International Student Association are:

1. To strengthen the relationship between Korean international students and the MIT community in general.
2. To promote networking opportunities with Korean companies and other Korean international student groups.
3. To introduce MIT to talented perspective students in Korea to foster an interest in studying abroad at MIT.

Article II: Membership

1. Any member of the MIT community is eligible to become a member of this organization. One is considered a member of this organization in any given academic term if he or she has attended at least one club activity in the preceding current term and paid membership fee.
2. The organization’s membership will at all times consist of at least 5 MIT students and be more than half MIT students.
3. This organization will not discriminate based on any characteristic listed in MIT’s Nondiscrimination Statement.
4. There will be exceptions made for students that cannot afford monetary dues.

Article III: Officers

1. This organization will have at a minimum five officers:
   a. President
      1) The president shall be the official representative of the group to any other organization and to MIT.
      2) The president will preside over all meetings.
      3) The president is responsible for determining when meetings are and announcing this to the group.
   b. Vice President
      1) The vice president shall work with president on promoting the group’s activities.
      2) The vice president is responsible for coordinating between president and other officers.
   c. Secretary
      1) The secretary shall summarize meeting minutes and announce it to the group.
Social Chair

1) The social chair shall be responsible for hosting social events.

2) The social chair shall establish the connections with Korean companies, Korean student groups from other schools, and the MIT community.

e. Treasurer

1) The treasurer shall be responsible for the finances of the group.

2) The treasurer is required to sign all checks/vouchers of the group.

2. All officers of this organization must be distinct persons and MIT students.

3. Elections:
   a. Elections of officers shall occur at the first general body meeting of the spring semester.
   b. Any member of this organization is eligible to run for office.
   c. Quorum for elections is two thirds of the group.
   d. Any member is elected if he or she wins a majority of the voting members.
   e. If more than two people are running and no one wins a majority, then the person with the fewest votes is dropped from the ballot and votes are recast.
   f. The term of office runs from the first day of spring semester till until the registration day of next spring semester.

4. Removal: Officers may be removed by a two-thirds vote of the members.

Article IV: Meetings

1. Meetings shall be held at least every two weeks.

2. Meetings shall be presided over by the president, unless he/she is absent, and in that case the vice president shall preside.

3. All decisions shall be made by a majority vote of all members present.

4. Quorum for a meeting shall be one quarter of the members of the organization.

Article V: Amendments

1. Amendments shall be presented by any member of the organization.

2. Amendments shall be passed by a two-thirds voted of the members present.

3. Quorum for amending this constitution shall be one third of all members of the organization.

Article VI: ASA Governance Clause

The Korean International Student Association agrees to abide by the rules and regulations of the Association of Student Activities, and its executive board. This constitution, amendments to it, and the by-laws of this organization shall be subject to review by the ASA Executive Board to insure that they are in accordance with the aforementioned rules and regulations.