WHEREVER HE WANDERS
(From "MACK AND MABEL")

Presto

I gotta give my life some sparkle and fizz,
And think a thought that isn't wrapped up in his.
The place that I consider Paradise is Wherever He Ain't! Where'er He Ain't!

No more to wither when he's grouchy and gruff,
I'd gladly travel where the hurricanes blow;

No more to listen to him bel low and bluff,
I'd face the jungle and I'd stomp thru the snow,

To mor row morn ing I'll be strut in' my stuff
As long as I can pack my baggage and go
I walked behind him like a meek little lamb,
And had my fill of his terrible trap,
Not giving a damn,
I'll go to Sidney or Ceylon or Siam;
If he's goin', Ain't wherever He

My little love nest was a simmering sap,
And so I'm looking for a spot on the map,

whenever He
Ain't!

down; I'm go-in' north.

If he's go-in' back;

I'm go-in' forth;

Wherever He

Ain't!
Ain't! Where-ever He Ain't!

No more to with-er when he's grou-chy and gruff,
I'd glad-ly tra-vel where the hur-ri-canes blow;

Tatta,

If he's auf wiedersehen and get lost!

in heaven, I'll go to hell!
I walked behind him like a meek little lamb,
And had my fill of his not terrible trap,
Giving a damn.

I'll go to Sidney or Ceylon or Siam;
If he's goin', Ain't Wherever He

With me behaving like a simpering sap.
And so I'm looking for a spot on the map;
Wherever He
Ain't!
