Jeanette,

My wife and I agree to the letter as amended by Alex. If you want to include our email addresses, that is fine. My email address is cashe@mit.edu and Heather's address is hashe@mit.edu. If you only want to include one address, use mine.

From now, approvals should indicate also whether or not you approve of Alex Crumlin's recommendation for the first paragraph and of the letter itself.

In addition, please indicate if you would be willing to have the final draft of the letter include your e-mail address along with your name/position. This is how we will address the issue of including contact information.
