Hi Jeanette,

After a bit of wrangling with MIME-types and unattaching files command-line, I was able to read your email.

I'd like some clarification about the per-entry approval process for this statement. Are we only restricting valid votes from entry-representatives to people who were present at the meeting last night? Or perhaps only entry chairs?

And are the meeting notes available yet?

Should questions like these be posed to all of mac-exec?

Wei-An
