If it matters, I approve, but I don't represent D-Entry (just a resident, not on housecomm or entry chair). I don't really think my name should be listed on the letter, but it's all right if it's been done already (I didn't participate in the entry selection).

Thanks,
Omar

As Meisha's editions do not change the content or tone of the letter, I will not require a second round of approvals. All approvals are due by midnight.

Hey. I agree with the sentiments conveyed in the letter, as well as Alex's comment. I, however, made a few changes to the wording. I have attached the edited version. All changes are noted in red.

In addition, I do agree with the stance taken by the GRTs.
