I would like to apologize for not being able to attend this afternoon's emergency meeting. After reading the various statements, revisions and comments, I would like to commend all of you for your dedication and hard work.

I am writing to second the stance presented by the GRTs. For the reasons mentioned by both Mike and Colin, I also do not think the GRT names should be included in the letter to the freshmen.

Thank you.

After discussions with Eric, Mark, Laura & Munzer, we as GRTs feel that we should abstain from responding to Jeanette's request. Regardless of our opinions, negative or positive towards the issue or the wording of the letter, we are not responsible for the rush process. The in-house rush process is managed in total by House-Comm and the student body per the by-laws. We as GRTs had nothing to do with the results, so in our opinion, we should not be included in the apology.

Please do not take this as a rejection towards our involvement in the House Team or taskforce. We will continue to support the efforts of the taskforce to improve the overall happiness of the residents and work towards the goal of a concrete plan for next year's rush. I feel it is not appropriate to list our names/positions at the conclusion of the letter.

Thank you.
