

PKT Competes In IM Sports

PKT has been a dominating force in this year's intramural sports. Starting with IM tennis in September, PKT dominated the A-league tennis tournament with Phillip Hou '04 charging forward as captain. John Suh '03 and Mike Negrete '03 did their part, smackin' alley shots, while Ji Zhang '05 tirelessly dived for those winners and impossible returns.

Contributing his talents to IM soccer is Laddie M. Horvath II '05, former star forward of Niceville Soccer. C-league soccer was unprepared for the combined might that included halfbacks 6'6" Max Farrell '04 and Nick Chan '05, ending the season at 2-1-1. As some brothers performed valiant plays on grass, others executed them on ice. Bob Aspell's '06 deft puck-handling skills equated to screaming sirens, while on defense, goalie Abraham Hsu '05 acted like a wombat on ice, denying every shot that came his way, as well as a few kick-saves and glove-saves on the side.

In IM bowling, Chung-Kit Chan '04 mercilessly leads the PKT team in a manner reminiscent of the days of Oludare Ogunyemi '00. With scores all above 200, PKT IM bowlers have achieved top individual rankings throughout the league.

On March 11, 2003, an era of PKT basketball domination seemed to fade, as the second-seed PKT b-ball team, with a perfect season record of 5-0, fell in its first playoff game to the brotherhood's shocked disbelief. The brothers unwillingly say farewell to the graduating ballers: Alex ("Three's-Rainmaker") Chang '02, Alex ("So Quick in his Nike's") Wong '03, Dave ("Simply Put: the Animal") Von Stroh '03, and Stuart ("Don't Mess") Laval '03.

In IM football, PKT rose to become anointed as king and champion over all other B-league teams. Like Europe during the feudal ages, IM B-league football was an internal struggle with countless factions wrestling for control of the crown. Through blood-shedding battles and miracle saves worthy of the PKT legends of yore (i.e. Dave Yang '01), the PKT IM football team stepped off the final snow-covered battlefield, sweating and in pain but victorious, yelling, "PHI! [phi!] IOTA! [iota!] KAPPA-ALPHA-PI-PI-ALPHA-THETA-ETA-TAU-ALPHA...."
